

NEWS FROM THE ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

GALES FERRY

Prize Banner Won by Epworth League—Thomas Latham in Old Place at Camp Ground—Choir Held Successful Sale.

Rev. C. Wilson Harrison and Dr. Irving Harburt, president of the Gales Ferry chapter of the Epworth league, who were in attendance as delegates at the Epworth League Institute at the Willimantic camp ground last week, returned with the handsome banner offered in the contest among the leagues of the Norwich district to the chapter gaining the largest number of points marking the activities of the several departments. The banner, which will remain here as the property of the local league during the ensuing year, when it will again be offered as a competitive reward, was presented to the chapter by President Harburt at the Sunday evening service.

With the Summer Visitors. Mrs. John Rogers with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Benn and children, who have spent the summer at their home in the village, returned to New London on Wednesday, owing to illness in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beckwith of Moodus were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Chapman in the Albany Point district.

Judge Alfred Steers and family of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending a two weeks' vacation at the Geer cottage on the bluff.

Miss Margaret Harris of Groton arrived the first of the week for a visit at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Latham, who have charge of the Gales Ferry house at the camp ground.

The Misses Mildred and Helen Scranon returned recently from the camp ground, having been guests for several weeks of their aunts, the Misses Mathewson.

Miss Mildred Pierce of Albany Point left last week to become a probationer at the Connecticut training school for nurses at New Haven.

Rowland H. Perkins of New London entertained a party of local relatives and summer visitors here for a trip on his power boat, Wednesday afternoon and evening, and attended the beach day events at Ocean Beach.

Mrs. Sarah Colver and her daughter, Miss Kate E. Colver, of the Navy Yard, with their daughters, Miss Addison Chapman and daughter, Miss Maud, of Middletown, and Miss Carrie Chapman of Newport, were guests of Mrs. Colver last week at the Colver cottage on the Willimantic camp ground.

Mrs. Joseph Birch and her daughters, Mary, Madeline and Dorothy, were guests of Mrs. Birch's sister, Mrs. Curtis Gates, in New London, on Tuesday.

The cake and ice cream sale arranged under the auspices of the choir of the M. R. church and held by courtesy of the Misses Mathewson, was held at their home in the village last week and was well attended and proved to be one of the most successful from a financial standpoint. The net proceeds, after giving for the benefit of the church, the last of the series of entertainments, a concert to be given under the direction of the choir, is scheduled for Saturday evening, Aug. 28th.

Mrs. E. A. James and son, Albert, of the Albany Point district, left on Tuesday to visit relatives in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Aldrich, with their daughter, Miss Dorothy Crowell and Miss Dorothy Crowell, who have passed the summer at Twin Oaks cottage, returned to their home in Norwich on Tuesday.

Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins and her daughter, Miss Jennie G. Perkins, returned on Monday from a week end visit at Mount Vernon, Mass. Mrs. Perkins stopping over for the day at the Willimantic camp ground.

The Misses Geer, accompanied by their nephew, Fred Gilroy of Mount Vernon, N. Y., have returned for a short stay to their home in Norwich.

At several of the M. R. church are planning to attend services at the Willimantic camp ground on Sunday, the morning service and Sunday school session will be discontinued for the day on Sunday.

James Martin of Meriden left on Monday to spend a two weeks' vacation at his cottage, Leisure Hour, Mrs. Martin remaining at the Willimantic camp ground.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison and daughter, Miriam, left on Thursday to attend services at the Willimantic camp ground.

Mrs. Latham Smith and Mrs. Myria Weather were attendance at the beach day exercises in New London Wednesday.

Annual Visit from Webster. Mrs. Harriet Wood, with her daughters, Mrs. E. B. Blum and Mrs. Neddie Wood of Webster, Mass., are making their annual visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fairbank.

Mrs. Lucy Harburt left on Wednesday for a few days' stay at the home of her brother, R. H. Perkins, in New London.

EAST COLCHESTER
Blind Horse Wandered Away and Broke Leg—Grangers Attend Pomona Meeting.

Susman Paley recently lost one of his team horses. The horse became unfatigued and wandered out of its stall. It was blind and Mr. Paley believes it got caught in something and so broke its leg.

Local Pomona grange members and friends attended a picnic held at Lincoln park on Friday.

Miss Eliza Murphy of Naugatuck is the guest of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Avery, Mrs. McNamara and Mrs. Reynolds with children Jessie and Wallace, were week-end campers at Willimantic, returned with a good catch of clams.

IDEAL SILO
Don't buy a silo that is made of lumber filled with poisonous creosote. That has short stave stock spliced with rain catching joints. That does not have reinforced door frame.

BENNETT BROS. CO.
Lowell, Mass. (1)

UNCASVILLE

C. M. Robertson Co. Has Foundations Laid for Extension of Plant—Quaker Hill Baptist Church Ladies Will Entertain 300 Delegates—Local Party Enjoying Outing at Eastern Point.

Guy A. Loomis, who has been spending his vacation at the home of his father, E. Turner Loomis, returned to Hartford Sunday evening to resume duties Monday morning.

Mrs. Martha Morris of Pequonnock entertained over the week end Victor Bolletier of Southbridge, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sheldon of Pequonnock entertained as their guests this week Mrs. Mahalia Watrous of Pawtucket, R. I.

Mrs. Marion Gilbert is entertaining her son, Fred Gilbert, of Waterbury, during his vacation.

Mrs. Edward Hicks and children, who have been the guests of Mrs. Hicks' father, Charles Olsen, returned to their home in Hartford Saturday.

Mrs. James B. Armstrong, after a few days spent with relatives in town, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Mrs. Frank Miner and daughter, Miss Henrietta Gridley, accompanied by Miss Robert Boynton, returned to their home Monday night after a week spent in the vicinity of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Frank Skinner of Hartford is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Henry Talcott of Hartford, is a guest at the Hooper household.

Extension to Box Shop. The Misses Mathewson have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Frank Skinner of Hartford is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Henry Talcott of Hartford, is a guest at the Hooper household.

Extension to Box Shop. The Misses Mathewson have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Frank Skinner of Hartford is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Henry Talcott of Hartford, is a guest at the Hooper household.

Extension to Box Shop. The Misses Mathewson have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Frank Skinner of Hartford is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Henry Talcott of Hartford, is a guest at the Hooper household.

Extension to Box Shop. The Misses Mathewson have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Frank Skinner of Hartford is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Henry Talcott of Hartford, is a guest at the Hooper household.

Extension to Box Shop. The Misses Mathewson have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

Frank Skinner of Hartford is spending his vacation at the home of his father, Henry Talcott of Hartford, is a guest at the Hooper household.

Extension to Box Shop. The Misses Mathewson have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley have been entertaining for a few days Miss Lillian Palmering of Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drysdale of Pawtucket, R. I., for a few days.

Mrs. Hope Freeman of the village, returned to her home in Norwich Friday.

GLASGO

Epworth League Members Picnic and Make Merry—Many to Attend Camp Meeting from Here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilbur returned home Saturday afternoon from the beach, where they have been for a week.

Mr. Cole has moved his household goods from the village to his farm. He will continue to watch the mill as formerly.

Frank Eccleston is entertaining his sister and two children from Boston.

Mrs. R. H. Young is spending a few days among relatives and friends in Willimantic and will also attend the camp meeting.

John Thompson and daughter returned to Norwich the first of the week.

A merry party of Epworth league members held a picnic on Brown's mountain last Saturday.

Mr. Gustafson brought along his field glasses, and the company took the company down in a large van.

A party of twelve were down at the drawbridge below Fort Point and spent a number of pleasant hours crabbing last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving of Irvington, N. J., is the guest of friends here, her former home.

Miss Beattie Randall is visiting friends in Hartford.

Searchlight from the Sound. There was a bright light that reflected the sky directly south from here Wednesday evening and which was thought to be a fire, but later it proved to be a brilliant searchlight of some passing vessel in the Sound.

The Jordan Never Fails. Regardless of one of the worst droughts ever known the Jordan brook here is still running.

LIBERTY HILL
Lightning Strikes in Two Places—Welcome for Rev. Elwell O. Mead—Notes of the Week.

There was a very hard thunder shower Sunday afternoon, coming from the northeast, with strong wind. A little hail fell, it lasted about three-quarters of an hour and 1.5-2 inches of water fell. The lightning struck a barn near the Fred Green place and burned it, also Mr. Levett, owner of the barn, in the woods and field.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Edwards of Hanover visited friends in town this week.

Week at Eastern Point. Mrs. Albert Fox, Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Miss Jessie Scholfield, Miss Jessie Bradford, Miss Evelyn Comstock, Miss Agnes Wood, Miss Minnie Nichols, Miss John W. Adams, Miss Agnes Goodfellow, Miss Lillian Johnson and Miss Helen Lynch are spending this week in a cottage at Eastern Point.

Mrs. Walter Jeffers and Mrs. Ray Woodmansee left Wednesday to spend a week at the camp meeting in Willimantic.

Miss Ella Rosenlund, Miss Sadie Edwards, Miss Frances Edwards, Miss Maud Bennett, Miss Gertrude Rogers, Miss Ethel Wood, Miss Edith Dennis, Sunday school pupils of Miss Elsie Osborn, spent Saturday at Watch Hill.

Clarence E. Walden of Boston spent the week end with his family, who are summering at Mrs. Walden's mother, Mrs. Ida Browning.

Christian Endeavor Meeting. The Christian Endeavor meeting was held on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Chapman on Gay Hill Sunday evening.

Miss Mitchell of the Keyes Product company is spending his vacation with his family, who occupy a cottage at Quilabomb.

Several from Palmerston attended the minstrel show held at Gardner Lake Friday evening.

Joseph Johnson has taken a position at Windsor Locks and began his duties Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Dooly is spending her vacation at Three Rivers, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovide Brouillard of Pequot entertained over the week end Madeline Dooly of Norwich.

Miss Frances Edwards of Quaker Hill has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. Phebe B. Browne, a Member of Newent Church for 57 Years.

August Roelck of Springfield is a visitor this week at Mrs. E. A. Kennedy's where his wife and little son are spending the month.

Mrs. Martin Barber recently had as guests her uncle, Albert Browning, and son, Glen, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, and Mrs. Sarah Hall of Norwich.

Mrs. M. S. Cater and Mrs. E. E. Hyde spent Tuesday at Pleasure Beach the guests of Mrs. M. A. Rosworth and her son, Dr. L. H. Hordford of Watch Hill.

Plans for Entertaining Delegates. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church, Quaker Hill, will meet at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon to entertain the 300 delegates which are expected to attend the association which will meet at this church in September.

LISBON
Funeral of Mrs. P